

Mrs. Lundquist's 5th Grade Newsletter

August 22-26

Wed, August 24

1:00 dismissal

Friday, August 26th

Spelling Test

Reading Log Due

CORN MAIZE!!

Monday, August 29th

Composition notebooks due and ready to be shared!

Token Question:

Every week there will be a question in this box. You will not know what the question is unless you read the newsletter. Most answers will be easy to look up on the internet. They are to be placed on my desk Tuesday mornings with YOUR name and a parent's signature. A token will be given which can be used later for something special.

Oh Wow! I know we say it every year, but I can't believe we are actually back. Even though we're saying goodbye to long, lazy summer days, we actually have the chance to bring in a fantastic year here at ACE. Fifth grade is going to be such a fun and memorable year. One important note as you read through the newsletter, please make it priority to read this EVERY week. It will be chock full of important information that you may only find here. Pick a time every Monday evening to go over it...both parent and student. Pick a time every Monday evening to go over it...both parent and student! We're going to keep organized!!

First official assignment

Each student was to have purchased a composition notebook for this year. During the first week of school, I would like everyone to individualize their notebook to reflect themselves. Creativity is encouraged and neatness is a must! Stickers, family pictures, sports cards, and music sheets are just some of the items kids in the past have used. Their names should be clearly visible on the front side. On Monday, August 29th, students will share their journals with the class. We will be writing in these every morning!!! We WILL be writing in them every morning, so the notebook will need to come back and forth every day.

Safety Patrol-Until 4th grade gets trained in, 5th grade will be pulling a little extra weight in this department. After the first week, I will put kids into carpools and plan accordingly. Thanks so much for helping out our school in this way!!

JUST received word that we were approved to do the YMCA Outdoor Challenge on Friday, September 9. You will receive more information regarding this, but mark your calendars if you would like to go with!

Caption describing picture or graphic.

“To catch the reader’s attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Kindergarten News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like “School News,” or “Back to School.” As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter’s theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

First Grade News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like “School News,” or “Back to School.” As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter’s theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

Second Grade News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like “School News,” or “Back to School.” As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter’s theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

Third Grade News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like “School News,” or “Back to School.” As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter’s theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

Fourth Grade News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to

Fifth Grade News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to

Sixth Grade News

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to

send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events, as well as of any school district news.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

YOUR LOGO
HERE

School Name
Street Address
Address 2
City, ST ZIP Code

Phone:
(555) 555-0125

Fax:
(555) 555-0145

E-mail:
E-mail address

Your school motto
here.

We're on the Web!
Web site address

New Students

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter. These factors will help determine how frequently you publish the newsletter and its length.

Use the body of your school newsletter to keep parents apprised of major assignments and class events.

New Staff

The purpose of a newsletter is to provide specialized information to a targeted audience. A school newsletter can be a great way to develop a strong relationship with parents.

First choose a short title for your newsletter— something like "School News," or "Back to School." As you choose the title, also take time to think about the newsletter's theme. What important messages do you want to send parents and families?

Next, establish how much time and money you can spend on your newsletter.

School Name
Street Address
Address 2
City, ST ZIP Code

RECIPIENT NAME
STREET ADDRESS
ADDRESS 2
CITY, ST ZIP CODE